

Lower Republican Watershed Restorations and Protection Strategies Clay County Tour

Wednesday, August 24, 2011

9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

4-H Conference Center, Clay County Fairgrounds

- | | |
|-------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:30 – 9:00 | Registration |
| 9:00 | Load Bus & travel Livestock Demonstration Site
Bus Topics – Welcome & Overview of RC&D – John Forshee
Overview of WRAPS – Robert Wilson, KSRE
WRAPS Grants – Tom Meek, CY Co. Cons. Dist. |
| 9:20 | Factors Involved in Decision to Relocate Winter Feeding – Derek James |
| 9:30 | Factors to Consider in Selection & Design Livestock Feeding Sites
-Will Boyer - K-State Research & Extension Watershed Specialist |
| 10:00 | Designing Livestock Windbreaks – John Forshee, RVED |
| 10:15 | Load Buses & Travel Crop Demonstration Site |
| 10:30 | Rotation through Demonstration Stations
Station 1) Crop Buffer Strips – Design & Benefit – Watershed Specialist Station 2) No-till Crop Considerations – Todd Whitney, RVED
Station 3) Soil Pits – a look under the soil surface –Jim McDowell, NRCS |
| 12:00 | Load Buses – Return to 4-H Conference Center |
| 12:10 | BBQ Beef Lunch Sponsored by WRAPS Grant |
| 12:50 | No-Till & Precision Ag Demonstrations - CTI |
| 2:00 | Wrap up and Depart for home – John Forshee |